WOODLANDS INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE – HEAD OF MUSIC

Woodlands International College is a progressive, co-educational, independent College situated on a pristine wetland on the northern boundary of Boksburg. We are currently recruiting for a full-time Head of Music to service both the Junior and Senior Colleges. The ideal applicant will have a proven and successful track record in teaching music within the Independent Schooling, IEB, environment.

Key responsibilities:

- Uphold the ethos of mutual respect, professionalism and academic excellence in Woodlands International College.
- Classroom music teaching in Grades 4 – 9. This may be changed, or extended in the future.
- Ability to source and manage peripatetic music teachers in a variety of instruments including percussion, violin, piano and vocals.
- Training of both the Junior and the Senior College choirs.
- Co-ordination of the IEB subject music programme alongside our Head of Art and Head of Drama.
- Administration within the music department.
- Willing to assist with the direction and/or production of the College's performing arts productions.

Minimum requirements:

- Relevant undergraduate degree or teacher's licentiate or equivalent.
- At least 3 years' experience in music teaching
- Current SACE registration
- Competency in piano accompaniment
- Intermediate computer music literacy and teaching through technology skills
- Ability to teach recorder and class music
- Self-motivated, organised and energetic
- Be willing to work outside of school hours when necessary
- Be empathetic and inspire respect
- Be familiar with the IEB curricula and assessment
- Have passion and long-term vision for music
- Display excellent organisational and team management skills

Teachers at Woodlands International College are required to be the embodiment of the 21st century educator. This individual is a role model to the College's students and is subsequently required to act with the utmost professionalism and integrity at all times. Woodlands' teachers also display sincere care for the overall welfare and development of all of our students at all times.
