WOODLANDS INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE – ENGLISH TEACHER

Woodlands International College is a prominent and established co-educational private school located on the East Rand of Gauteng, which caters to Grades 000-12. The College currently serves approximately 1 100 learners, comprising of a Pre-Primary College (Gr 000-0), Junior College (Gr 1-6), and Senior College (Gr 7-12).

We are currently recruiting for an English Teacher in the Senior College (Gr 7-12). The ideal candidate will be a specialist English teacher who is well entrenched in the IEB environment, and has a proven and successful track record in teaching English at Grade 12 level.

DUTIES

- Uphold the ethos of mutual respect, professionalism and academic excellence in the Senior College.
- Use statistical data, alongside the application of industry best practise to produce an industry leading classroom product, as part of the English department.
- Teach English at Grade 12 level. The ability to teach AP English will be considered an advantage.
- Contribute to the integrity and implementation of moderation processes and the relevant quality control systems in the English department.
- Contribute to, and participate in the co-curricular programme of the school.
- Remain connected and informed of all industry matters, particularly pertaining to ISASA and the IEB.
- Build and manage symbiotic relationships with parents and other strategic partners of the Senior College, including the staff and leadership bodies of the Pre-Primary and Junior Colleges.
- Aspire to excellence in all matters related to curriculum, assessment and classroom dynamics, with 21st Century learning paradigms in mind.

GENERAL

Teachers at Woodlands International College are required to be the embodiment of the 21st century educator. Our educators and staff are role models to our students, and are subsequently required to act with the utmost professionalism and integrity at all times. Woodlands teachers, also, display sincere care for the overall welfare and development of our all of our students, all of the time.

All applications must please be sent, in confidence to our Principal, Chris van Niekerk, at vanniekerkc@woodlandscollege.co.za.

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS: 30 September 2019
